FIRST® is a robotics community that prepares young people for the future. Project-based, hands-on programs introduce students to engineering and coding in an engaging, inclusive, and creative after-school or in-class learning environment where students work collaboratively to solve an annual robotics challenge centered around a yearly theme. Our PreK-12 programs are designed to inspire innovation and help young people build a better future.

LEARN MORE: firstinspires.org/firstenergize